FUTURITY IS WON

BY KEENE'S SWEEP

Sheepshead Bay, Aug. 30.—James R.
Keene's Ben Brush colt, Sweep, quoted at 4 to 5 in the betting, won the rich futurity stakes at Sheepshead Bay today. The Montpelier stable, Can-deberry, at 3 to 1, was second, a length in front of the Keene stable's Grassmere. About 15,000 persons saw the race.

BURLINGTON IN THE SOUTH.
Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 30.—According to reports, the Burlington system is shortly to establish an airline through Nashville, connecting the grain fields of the northwest with the Atlantic coast, by acquiring the Tennessee Central. This road will be the connecting link between the Burlington at Paducah, Ky., and the Seaboard Airline at Rutherford, N. C.

RESCUED SIX MEN.

Galveston, Aug. 30.—The British steamer Lugan arrived at this port today bringing Captain W. G. Walde-mar and six members of the crew of the American schooner Isaac L.
Campbell which was wrecked in the Gulf Thursday by the tropical hurricane. All are in a serious condition from exposure. The schooner was lost and two sailors drowned.

FILIBUSTERING RUMORS.

Guatemala City, Guatemala, Aug. 30.— There is considerable uneasiness here and in Salvador over the persistence of the report that General Zelaya, president of Nicaragua, is engaged in fitting out a filibustering expedition at New Orleans, the object of which is an attack on Guatemalan and Salvador.

WELLMAN AT SPITZBERGEN.

Tromsø, Norway, Aug. 30.—Walter Dellman, who recently made an unsuccessful attempt to reach the North Pole in a dirigible balloon, arrived here today from Spitzbergen. He has left three men to guard the airship at the Spitzbergen camp through the winter.

Upon The Flour

You use in baking whether the Bread, Rolls, Biscuit, etc., are light, healthful and nutritious or not.

You get these results when you bake with Peery's Crescent Brain a Photographic Record.

Up to a certain age the brain remains plastic enough so that if an injury occurs to the thought brain, the person can begin over again and create new knowledge centers in the other hemisphere, says Wallace D.
Wattles in Nautilus. This has happened in many cases where young people have lost certain powers or faculties by cerebral lesions, and have afterward recovered these faculties by developing new centers in the other brain. It rarely happens after the age of 45, and the reason is because most persons after passing that age soon clog their brains with calcareous matter by overeating, and destroy the plasticity of their brains by filling them with food waste. If all people past the age of 45 would live on 12 ounces or less of solid food per day, we should soon find that the one may receive new ideas as readily at 75 as at 15. You cannot do it, however, if your brain is a hardened mass of waste matter. If you overeat you will be "soil" in your ways, and a has-been at 50. Keep your photograph records soft and receptive.

SEC. WILSON AND PARTY ARRIVE

HEAD OF AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT IS BUSY MAN.

At Work in Local Office of Forest at 8 O'clock This Morning—Purpose of Visit.

To ascertain if possible what grounds for grievance lies in the complaints made by sheep owners of Utah and Idaho that their grazing rights are being interfered with by the forestry department and the claim that lands have been set aside as forestry reserves which are in reality agricultural lands in the stricter sense, James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, accompanied by his son and private secretary, Jasper Wilson, and Assistant Chief Forester A. R. Pinchot, arrived in Ogden yesterday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock on the Limited from Los Angeles. With Secretary Wilson and party is George S. Walker, secretary of the National Wool-growers association. Mr. Walker will meet a number of sheepmen today to discuss plans for the national convention of wool growers, which meets in Ogden next January.

The party was met at the train by District Forester Clyde Leavitt, Secretary I. L. Reynolds and other members of the Weber club, and shown to their hotel.

Secretary James Wilson of the United States agricultural department is a very busy man in Ogden today. He was at work at the offices of the forestry service in the National Bank building this morning at 8 o'clock with his shirt sleeves rolled up. While the secretary is well advanced in years, being 71 years old, he is vigorous and energetic and apparently attends to business with as much vim and energy as a man of 40.

him and Secretary Wilson to Ogden and Idaho, Assistant Chief Forester A.
F. Pinchot had this to say:

"The secretary of agriculture has come here to look into the stockmen and others using the national forests and to have a talk with them regarding progress which is being made by the forest service and to hear any complaints that they may wish to make against the way the national forests are being managed. He is particularly interested to find out whether or not homestead settlement upon lands within the national forests which can be cultivated is in any way being retarded and to find out to what extent lands suitable for homestead entry have been reclaimed. He will also confer with the stockmen regarding the best methods of managing the grazing lands so that they may sustain the largest possible number of livestock and add the most to the general welfare of the country."

"He is anxious that the forage crop upon the lands within the national forests shall be utilized to the fullest extent consistent with a proper protection of the forest, and will confer with the stockmen regarding the best

"To Be Entertained Today." From here the secretary will go to held on Tuesday afternoon. He will then go to Mackay and meet the people in that vicinity on Wednesday afternoon. After this he will make a trip over some of the national forests of Idaho to learn the actual condiretary Wilson made it plain that he heartily endorses the plan of Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot and has absolute confidence in his ability to properly manage the national forests."

HARRIMAN TELLS ALL

Issues Statement of His Exact Condition and Makes a Request

New York, Aug. 29.—Mr. Harriman has dictated the following statement for the press:

"I am pursuing the course laid out before I went abroad and advised with the physicians. I intended enjoying the rest as soon as my responsibilities would permit. My treatment abroad reduced my strength and vitality and weakened my digestion. The expert physicians in Munich advised me to have an examination as a matter of precaution. This has been done very carefully by Doctors Brower and Cille, in combination with Dr. Walter James and Dr. Lyle, but with the result that they found nothing serious and renew the advice, previously obtained, that I should have rest and not see many people at any one time, and this I am trying to do."

"This covers the whole case and, later on, if the representatives of the press desire, and there is any purpose to be accomplished, I will see them up here, but now I ask that the surveillance of the operations of my home be withdrawn, not only on account of my family or myself, but that the coming and going of any friends may not be interfered with. I appreciate the interest in my welfare by the press and friends in all sections and perhaps by some others. If there was or should be anything serious, I will let the press know, and as I have never deceived them, I ask that the press now withdraw its representatives and rely upon me."

"The meeting which Secretary Wilson has called will convene at 10 o'clock today and will probably last all day."

A. F. Potter, assistant forester, who is here with Secretary Wilson, is an old-time stockman, who is quite familiar with conditions in the state of Utah.

In 1902 he made the original examinations of the lands which have been withdrawn for the proposed forest reserves and recommended the boundary lines for most of the national forests in this state.

Since then he has taken a great interest in the welfare of Utah and has always been ready to do anything possible to advance its interests.

Mr. Potter knows more about the forest conditions in this state than does any other man in the service. He has personally gone over the boundaries and when complaints or recommendations reach his office he is in a position to attend to those matters personally.

He said that he was only in the state for about a year, but during that time he went from the extreme north to the extreme south. He was much impressed by the trip. His interest in the welfare of the state has been increased and he has become very much interested in the welfare of the commonwealth and any time when he has a chance to benefit Utah he has turned all his energies to that end.
